 - a. is classified as a juvenile in the sending state; and
 - b. is an adjudicated delinquent, adjudicated status offender, or has a deferred adjudication in the sending state; and
 - c. is under the jurisdiction of a court or appropriate authority in the sending state; and
 - d. has a plan inclusive of relocating to another state for a period exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days in any twelve (12) month period; and

Proposed by the South Region (6/25/2014)Rule 4-101: Eligibility Requirements for the Transfer of Supervision

1. Each state that is a party to the ICJ shall process all referrals involving juveniles, for whom services have been requested, provided those juveniles are under juvenile jurisdiction in the sending state.
2. No state shall permit a juvenile who is eligible for transfer under this compact to relocate to another state except as provided by the Compact and these rules. A juvenile shall be eligible for transfer under ICJ if the following conditions are met:
 - a. is classified as a juvenile in the sending state; and
 - b. is an adjudicated delinquent, adjudicated status offender, or has a deferred adjudication in the sending state; and
 - c. is under the jurisdiction of a court or appropriate authority in the sending state; and
 - d. has a plan inclusive of relocating to another state for a period exceeding ninety (90) consecutive days in any twelve (12) month period; and
 - e. has more than ninety (90) days or an indefinite period of supervision remaining at the time the sending state submits the transfer request; and
 - f.
 - i. Will reside with a parent, legal guardian, relative, non-relative or independently, excluding residential facilities; or
 - ii. Is a full time student at an accredited secondary school, or accredited university, college, or licensed specialized training program and can provide proof of acceptance and enrollment.
3. If a child is placed pursuant to the ICJ and is also subject to the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC), placement and supervision through the ICPC would not be precluded.
4. A state may request a home evaluation for a juvenile pending adjudication for charges in the sending state, provided petitions have been filed on those charges and the sending state can provide, at a minimum, petitions and offense information in the ICJ packet. The receiving state can complete the home evaluation with a recommendation for acceptance or denial of the proposed placement based on this information and the results of the home evaluation.
- 5.4. A juvenile who is not eligible for transfer under this Compact is not subject to these rules.

Justification:

ICJ referrals are intended for youth that we are requesting supervision, and youth that are not yet adjudicated may not be eligible for supervision at that point in time. However, in practice the home evaluation is a distinct step in the ICJ process. To complete a home evaluation with sufficient information about the nature of the youth's offense and history should provide the receiving state with information to make an accurate assessment about the proposed placement's viability to meet youth needs. It would also preclude a situation where a youth may already move to the receiving state, only to then find that the placement is not suitable and create a situation that needs to be addressed.

Effect on Other Rules, Advisory Opinions or Dispute Resolutions:

None

JIDS Impact:

A new two-step workflow for Pre-adjudicated Home Evaluation requests. This process would be distinct from the home evaluation required for Transfer of Supervision cases because there would be no time frames to track in JIDS. A separate workflow would keep the statistical data clean by separating these requests from standard Transfer requests which require that the home evaluations are returned within 45 calendar days.

Proposed by the South Region (6/25/2014)Rule 4-102: Sending and Receiving Referrals

Each ICJ Office shall forward all its cases within five (5) business days of receipt. Each ICJ Office shall adhere to the following screening process when sending and receiving referrals. Supervision shall not be provided without written approval from the receiving state's ICJ Office. The sending state shall maintain responsibility until supervision is accepted by the receiving state.

1. Each ICJ Office shall develop policies/procedures on how to handle ICJ matters within their state.
2. Each ICJ Office shall ensure all requests and coordination for ICJ supervision are between ICJ Offices.
3. The ICJ Office in the sending state shall comply with the rules listed below:
 - a. State Committed (Parole) Cases – The ICJ Office in the sending state shall ensure the following referral documents are complete and forwarded to the receiving state forty five (45) calendar days prior to the juvenile's anticipated arrival: Form IV, Form IA/VI and Order of Commitment. The ICJ Office in the sending state should also provide copies, (if available) of the Petition and/or Arrest Report(s), Legal and Social History, and any other pertinent information deemed to be of benefit to the receiving state. Parole conditions, if not already included, shall be forwarded to the receiving state upon the juvenile's release from an institution. Form V shall be forwarded prior to placement in the receiving state.

When it is necessary to place a State Committed (parole) juvenile out of state prior to the acceptance of supervision, under the provision of Rule 4-104(4), the sending state shall determine if the circumstances of the juvenile's immediate placement justify the use of a travel permit, including consideration of the appropriateness of the placement. If approved by the sending state, it shall provide the receiving state with the approved travel permit along with a written explanation as to why ICJ procedures for submitting the referral could not be followed.

The sending state ICJ Office shall provide the complete ICJ referral to the receiving state ICJ office within ten (10) business days of the travel permit being issued. The receiving state shall make the decision whether or not it will expedite the ICJ referral.

- b. Probation Cases – The ICJ Office in the sending state shall ensure the following referral documents are complete and forwarded to the receiving state within five (5) business days of receipt: Form IV, Form IA/VI, Order of Adjudication and Disposition, Conditions of Probation and Petition and/or Arrest Report(s). The ICJ Office in the sending state should also provide copies (if available) of Legal and Social History, and any other pertinent information deemed to be of benefit to the

- receiving state. Form V shall be forwarded prior to placement if the juvenile is not already residing in the receiving state.
4. The sending state shall be responsive and timely in forwarding additional documentation at the request of the receiving state. The receiving state will not delay the investigation pending receipt of the additional documentation.
 5. In the event that the ICJ Form IA/VI does not have the signature of the juvenile and/or placement resource at the time the referral is made, the receiving state will obtain those signatures at the time the home evaluation is done. In the event that the Form IA/VI does not have the signature of the Judge or Compact Official in the sending state at the time the referral is made, the sending state will obtain those signatures upon receipt of the approved home evaluation. A copy of the signed IA/VI will be routed to the receiving state as soon as signatures are obtained.
 5. 6. The receiving state's ICJ Office shall request its local offices complete a home evaluation within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of referral.
 6. 7. The receiving state's ICJ Office shall, within forty five (45) calendar days of receipt of the referral, forward to the sending state the home evaluation along with the final approval or disapproval of the request for supervision or provide an explanation of the delay to the sending state.

Justification:

The definition of “complete” for the IA/VI has been construed to include ALL signatures being present at the time of the initial referral. Some ICJ offices are refusing to accept the packet when the IA/VI is lacking at least some signatures. ICJ best practices contraindicate waiting for signatures to be obtained to complete the home evaluation and process a referral. There are logistical reasons why the IA/VI in the initial referral may not contain the juvenile and/or placement resource signature. These signatures can be easily obtained when completing the home evaluation. As some judges interpret that signing the IA/VI is equivalent to approving placement, they do not agree to sign until they know that the other state has accepted supervision. The Judge’s signature can be obtained once the receiving state has accepted supervision and can be forwarded back to the receiving state when obtained. If the juvenile is already in the receiving state, it is against public safety and best practice to delay processing the ICJ referral waiting for this signature.

RULE 5-101: Supervision/Services Requirements

2. At the time of acceptance or during the term of supervision, the appropriate authority in the receiving state may impose conditions on a juvenile transferred under the interstate compact if that condition would have been imposed on a juvenile in the receiving state. Any costs incurred from any conditions imposed by the receiving state shall not be the responsibility of the sending state.
3. Both the sending and receiving states shall have the authority to enforce terms of probation/parole, which may include the imposition of detention time in the receiving state. Any costs incurred from any enforcement sanctions shall be the responsibility of the state seeking to impose such sanctions.

8. Juvenile restitution payments or court fines are to be paid directly from the juvenile/juvenile's family to the adjudicating court or agency in the sending state. The sending state shall provide the specific payment schedule and payee information to the receiving state.
9. Supervision for the sole purpose of collecting restitution or court fines is not a justifiable reason to ~~open~~ continue or extend supervision of a case. The receiving state may initiate the case closure request once all the other terms of supervision have been met.

4. Upon finding or apprehending the juvenile, the sending state shall make a determination if the juvenile shall return to the sending state or if the sending state will request supervision resume in the receiving state.

In such cases, the sending state shall be provided the opportunity to consider the matter, to advise the court of jurisdiction or state agency of the request, and to make known any objection or concern before the case is closed. Any decision to release a juvenile from probation/parole early shall be made by the appropriate authority in the sending state. The sending state will forward a copy of the discharge/termination report or notification to close based on the receiving state's recommendation or, if the request to close has been denied, provide a written explanation, within sixty (60) calendar days as to why the juvenile cannot be discharged/terminated ~~released~~ from probation/parole.
4. The receiving state may close the case upon notification that a warrant has been issued by the sending state for a juvenile who has absconded from supervision in the receiving state, or if the juvenile has been on absconder status for ten (10) business days.

The receiving state shall prepare and submit to the sending state a written report within three (3) business days of the hearing that identifies the time, date and location of the hearing; lists the parties present at the hearing; and includes a clear and concise summary of the testimony taken and the evidence relied upon in rendering the decision. Any evidence or record generated during a probable cause hearing shall be forwarded to the sending state. The sending state shall, within five (5) business days of receipt of the hearing officer's report, make arrangements to retake the juvenile.
 5. ADJUDICATION/CONVICTION FOR A NEW OFFENSE. A copy of an Order of judgment of adjudication/conviction regarding the adjudication/conviction of a new offense by the juvenile shall be deemed conclusive proof that the juvenile may be retaken by the sending state without the need for further proceedings.
 6. If probable cause is not established or an adjudication/conviction for a new offense, the receiving state shall:
 - a. Continue supervision if the juvenile is not in custody.
 - b. Notify the sending state to vacate the warrant, and continue supervision upon release if the offender is in custody on the sending state's warrant.

Justification:

If there is any question regarding the intent of a sending state to revoke a juvenile's conditional release based on violations in the receiving state, the juvenile should be given a probable cause hearing in accordance with two Supreme Court opinions. Failure to do so may act to bar consideration of those violations in subsequent revocation proceedings in the sending state.

The proposed rule brings ICJ into compliance with the U.S. Supreme Court opinions in Morrisey v. Brewer, 408 U.S. 471 (1972) and Gagnon v. Scarpelli, 411 U.S. 778 (1973) and is intended to address the fact that since 1972, offenders/juveniles have been entitled to probable cause hearings. The Supreme Court cases require that the hearing be conducted before a "neutral and detached hearing officer"; therefore, that language is included in the rule. The Morrisey case holds that the hearing must take place "in or reasonably near the place where the alleged violation occurred" so that the offender/juvenile will have the opportunity to confront witnesses and also present witnesses on his or her behalf. This is possible only if the hearing is held at or near the place where the witnesses are located; thus, this language is also proposed in the rule.

Juveniles are entitled to probable cause hearings. This rule specifies the process and conditions for a probable cause hearing in the receiving state. The IA/VI Application/Waiver Form, allows the juvenile to waive a formal process to be returned. The IA/VI Form does not however, take into consideration the fact that at the time a juvenile signs the IA/VI Application/Waiver Form, a future offense the juvenile may commit in the receiving state is unknown. Thus, a probable cause hearing is necessary if a future offense occurs in the receiving state and that offense may result in revocation or violations imposed upon an ICJ juvenile.

NEW: Rule 6-105: Return of Juveniles when Abuse or Neglect is Reported

When a holding state has reason to suspect abuse or neglect by a person in the home/demanding state, the holding state's ICJ Office shall notify the home/demanding state's ICJ Office of the suspected abuse or neglect. Allegations of abuse or neglect do not alleviate a state's responsibility to return a juvenile. The home/demanding state is responsible for the safe return of the juvenile within five (5) days unless an extension is mutually agreed upon. The allegations of abuse or neglect can be further investigated by the home/demanding state upon the juveniles return.

Justification:

New rule created which applies to all returns when suspected abuse or neglect is reported. Language moved from the current Rule 6-101(3) and (4) and amended with additional language for clarity and emphasis to the responsibility of the home/demanding state to safely return the juvenile.
