

ICJ STRATEGIC PLAN UPDATE: 2024 ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Priorities	Accomplishments
1: Improve UNITY for better outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Launched UNITY Reports on Voluntary and Non-Voluntary Returns to enable states to proactively monitor operations</li> <li>• Promoted use of UNITY’s Travel Plan Detail section to improve airport supervision and data collection</li> <li>• Clarified requirements for using national data system by amending UNITY Privacy Policy</li> <li>• Expanded resources for UNITY users by publishing UNITY Spotlights and ICJ Help Center articles</li> <li>• Updated UNITY and ICJ forms to operationalize rule amendments</li> <li>• Developed ICJ Dashboards concept to be launched in FY25, based on feedback about Proactive Monitoring Program</li> </ul>
2: Promote leadership development &amp; racial justice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Fostered development of Commission leaders through Implementation Leadership Academy and related technical assistance for Executive Committee during strategic planning process</li> <li>• Initiated Regional Committee Ambassadors to promote Commission-wide education and leadership development</li> <li>• Developed First Time Attendees Orientation and Networking Breakfast sessions for 2024 Annual Business Meeting</li> <li>• Promoted racial justice through training on Home Evaluation Considerations for Unconventional Families to address challenges related to “mandatory acceptance” of transfer cases</li> </ul>
3: Address gaps in ICJ Rules and resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Adopted 12 amendments to ICJ Rules, including recommendations from 2022 UNITY Data Assessment Report</li> <li>• Updated 31 resources to support rule amendments, including legal resources, training resources, and process charts</li> <li>• Promoted effective implementation of amendments to ICJ Rules through nationwide training</li> <li>• Published 2022 UNITY Data Assessment Results Report describing actions taken to address nationwide trends</li> <li>• Bolstered knowledge of ICJ Office staff and other stakeholders through 13 live Wednesday Workshops trainings and on-demand training provided through the ICJ Learning Management System (nearly 8,600 courses were completed)</li> <li>• Promoted strategies for collaborating to safely return runaways by publishing Toolkit on Returns and Child Welfare and hosting panel discussion at the 2023 Annual Business Meeting</li> <li>• Conducted Survey on Returning Non-Delinquent Runaways and developed recommendations to address top issues</li> </ul>
4: Leverage relationships to promote awareness and improve outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Member States’ ICJ Offices collaborated with state and local partners to provide nearly 350 training sessions for more than 3,400 probation, parole, and law enforcement officers; judicial personnel; and others stakeholders</li> <li>• Promoted awareness by presenting workshops at national conferences, including: American Probation and Parole Association; National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges; National Partnership for Juvenile Services; and Runaway and Homeless Youth Grantees</li> <li>• Expanded ICJ staff members’ knowledge by hosting Wednesday Workshop sessions presented by National Center for Missing &amp; Exploited Children; National Runaway Safeline; and U.S. Office of Refugee Resettlement</li> </ul>