Proposed by: East Region

NEW Rule 1-101: Definitions

Human Trafficking: exploitation of a person through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purposes of forced labor or commercial sex. For sex trafficking of a person under the age of 18, the elements of force, fraud, or coercion are not needed since anyone under the age of 18 cannot consent to commercial sex acts.

Justification:

Currently there is no definition in the ICJ Rules for Human Trafficking. Due to the correlation of running away and Human Trafficking, we thought it is important to have a definition since runaways are at high risk for trafficking. Having a definition of trafficking will allow for better identification of trafficking cases to be documented in UNITY and case coordination with other stakeholders.

If Human Trafficking is mentioned in any future rules, there will already be a definition in place. This proposal is based on the federal definition of human trafficking.

RULE 4-102: Sending and Receiving Referrals

1. Each ICJ Office shall develop policies/procedures on how to handle ICJ matters within its state.
2. The sending state shall maintain responsibility until supervision is accepted by, and the juvenile has arrived in, the receiving state.
  - a. State Committed (Parole) Cases – When transferring a juvenile parolee, the sending state shall not allow the juvenile to transfer to the receiving state until the sending state’s request for transfer of supervision has been approved, except as described in 4-102(2)(a)(ii).
    - i. The sending state shall ensure the following referral is complete and forwarded to the receiving state forty-five (45) calendar days prior to the juvenile’s anticipated arrival. The referral shall contain: Form IV, Parole or Probation Investigation Request; Form VI, Application for Services and Waiver; and ~~Order of C~~commitment. The sending state shall also provide copies (if available) of the ~~P~~petition and/or ~~A~~arrest ~~R~~report(s); ~~L~~egal and ~~S~~social ~~H~~history; supervision summary if the juvenile has been on supervision in the sending state for more than thirty (30) calendar days at the time the referral is forwarded; photograph, and any other pertinent information deemed to be of benefit to the receiving state. Parole conditions, if not already included, shall be forwarded to the receiving state upon the juvenile’s release from an institution. Form V, Notification from Sending State of Parolee or Probationer Proceeding to the Receiving State, shall be forwarded prior to or at the time the juvenile relocates to the receiving state.
    - ii. When it is necessary for a ~~S~~state ~~C~~committed (parole) juvenile to relocate prior to the acceptance of supervision, under the provision of Rule 4-104(5), the sending state shall ~~determine if the circumstances of the juvenile’s immediate relocation justify the use of~~ provide to the receiving state a Form VII, Out-of-State Travel Permit and Agreement to Return, prior to the juvenile’s departure from the sending state, ~~including consideration of the appropriateness of the residence. If approved by the sending state, it shall provide the receiving state with the approved Form VII, Out of State Travel Permit and Agreement to Return,~~ along with a written explanation as to why ICJ procedures for submitting the referral could not be followed.
    - iii. If not already submitted, the sending state shall provide the complete referral to the receiving state within ten (10) business days of submitting the Form VII, Out-of-State Travel Permit and Agreement to Return, ~~being issued. The receiving state shall make the decision whether or not it will expedite the referral.~~

The language that is suggested to be removed from Rule 4-104(4) creates confusion with this rule. The rule clearly states that a receiving state has 45 days to forward the home evaluation with the final approval or disapproval. It should end at that to lessen confusion and keep the rule to its intended purpose. No other rule allows for the ambiguity presented with this language that implies that states do not have to comply with the 45-day timeframe if an explanation is provided. This creates unnecessary confusion and frustration.

The timeframe should be maintained just as it is in any other rule without the ambiguity of language to suggest otherwise.

UNITY Impact: Yes. The current due date for submitting the full referral after submitting a travel permit is currently calculated according to 10 business days after "arrival date." The calculation would need to be adjusted to 10 business days after submission date.

Justification:

In 2024, Rule 8-101 was amended to clarify that travel permits are required for all pending transfer requests. The current language in Rule 4-102(3) could create confusion in that it appears to allow the option of sending a travel permit for a sex offender who must relocate prior to the acceptance of supervision. The proposed edits clarify the requirement of a travel permit for this unique situation.

The language also mirrors the proposed edits to Rule 4-102(2)(a)(ii-iii). Because the sections in Rules 4-102(2)(a)(ii-iii) and 4-103(3) speak to the same process, but for different populations, the language should be as similar as possible to eliminate confusion and inconsistencies between the two rules.

The second sentence in Rule 4-103(3)(d) regarding the receiving state having authority to supervise the juvenile prior to case acceptance based on reporting instructions is stricken as it conflicts with the previous sentence and other rules. Pursuant to Rules 4-104(1)-(2) and Rule 5-101(1), the receiving state does not have the authority to supervise the juvenile until supervision is accepted following the recommendation from the investigating officer.

The language regarding “expediting” the process in Rule 4-103(3)(b) is stricken, as the receiving state has the discretion to expedite the home evaluation. Since it is not a requirement, and there is no timeframe or mechanism to track this, the language should be removed.

The language in Paragraph 4 is edited to clarify that the receiving state will monitor the juvenile’s compliance with local policies and laws. The second sentence is stricken as unnecessary and redundant, as Rule 4-104 addresses home evaluation approvals and denials.

Proposed by Midwest Region

RULE 4-104: Authority to Accept/Deny Supervision

1. Only the receiving state's authorized Compact Office staff shall accept or deny supervision of a juvenile by that state after considering a recommendation by the investigating officer.
2. The receiving state's authorized Compact Office staff's signature is required on or with the Form VIII Home Evaluation Report that accepts or denies supervision of a juvenile by that state.
3. Supervision cannot be denied based solely on the juvenile's age or the offense.
4. Supervision shall be accepted unless the home evaluation reveals that the proposed residence is unsuitable or that the juvenile is not in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions of supervision required by the sending or receiving state. Supervision shall also be accepted as provided in Rule 4-104(5). When supervision is not recommended, the Form VIII, Home Evaluation Report, shall include a detailed justification to include why the proposed residence is not safe and/or suitable.
5. Supervision shall be accepted when a juvenile has no legal guardian remaining in the sending state and the juvenile does have a legal guardian residing in the receiving state.
6. A receiving state that is unable to enforce any condition of supervision imposed by the sending state shall notify the sending state of its inability to enforce the condition(s) by documenting the conditions which cannot be enforced on the Form VIII, Home Evaluation Report.
7. Upon receipt of acceptance of supervision from the receiving state, and prior to the juvenile's departure if the youth is not already residing in the receiving state, the sending state shall provide reporting instructions to the juvenile, and provide a Form V, Notification from Sending State of Parolee or Probationer Proceeding to the Receiving State, to the receiving state.
8. If the transfer of supervision is denied by the receiving state and the juvenile is already residing in the receiving state, the sending state shall, within five (5) business days, secure alternative living arrangements and submit an updated referral or return the juvenile to the sending state. This time period may be extended up to an additional five (5) business days with approval from both ICJ offices.

2017, effective March 1, 2018; amended September 11, 2019, effective March 1, 2020; clerically amended May 19, 2021; amended October 7, 2021, effective March 1, 2022; amended September 27, 2023, effective April 1, 2024

Comment: Rule 4-104 was originally titled "Supervision/Services Requirements," adopted December 2, 2009, effective March 1, 2010; amended September 15, 2010, effective January 1, 2011; amended October 26, 2011, effective March 1, 2012; renumbered as Rule 5-101, effective April 1, 2014

Justification:

Problem Statement

The ICJ Rules do not currently require a receiving state to notify the sending state if any condition of supervision cannot be enforced. As a result, the sending state may assume all conditions will be enforced upon acceptance of supervision and oftentimes do not learn of the receiving state's inability to enforce conditions until a Form IX-Quarterly Progress Report or Form IX-Violation Report is submitted by the receiving state. Consequently, the current process lacks the transparency needed for the sending state to determine whether the best interests of the youth can be served in the receiving state as the ability of the receiving state to enforce certain conditions may directly affect decisions made by the sending state regarding the proposed transfer of supervision. Additionally, the sending state authority does not have the opportunity to determine if a condition may be removed from the order.

Success Statement

The receiving state will document in the Form VIII-Home Evaluation any conditions of supervision that cannot be enforced, resulting in the sending state having the ability to make informed decisions regarding the youth. The sending state will be able to more easily determine whether the best interests of the youth can be served in the receiving state and take such actions as: waiving certain conditions if deemed non-essential, assuming financial responsibility for non-treatment services if payment is a barrier or deciding to not allow the proposed relocation. The Commission could assess the overall success of the amendment through a qualitative analysis.

RULE 5-103A: ~~Failed Supervision~~ Mandatory Relocation Determined by Receiving State

1. The receiving state may determine relocation is mandatory when ~~supervision has failed when a juvenile is not detained and~~ one of the following circumstances applies:
  - a. A legal guardian remains in the sending state, the receiving state has documented efforts or interventions to redirect the behavior, and:
    - i. The juvenile no longer resides in the residence approved by the receiving state due to documented instances of violation of conditions of supervision; or
    - ii. An alternative residence is determined to be in the best interest of the juvenile due to documented instances of violation of conditions of supervision and no viable alternatives have been located in the receiving state; or
    - iii. An immediate, serious threat to the health and safety of the juvenile and/or others in the residence or community is identified.
  - b. The juvenile does not reside with a legal guardian and the person with whom the juvenile resides requests the juvenile be removed from his/her home.
  - c. The juvenile is a student or resides independently in the receiving state and the transfer of supervision fails due to documented instances of violations of conditions of supervision, and the receiving state has documented efforts or interventions to redirect the behavior.
2. ~~Upon a determination of failed supervision,~~ The the receiving state shall notify the sending state using Form IX, Mandatory Relocation ~~Failed Supervision~~ Report, which shall contain the following information:
  - a. Details regarding why ~~how~~ the supervising agent determined relocation is mandatory ~~supervision in the receiving state failed~~; and
  - b. Description of efforts or interventions to redirect behavior or maintain current residence; and
  - c. Any pending charges in the receiving state.
3. The sending state shall respond to the Form IX, Mandatory Relocation ~~Failed Supervision~~ Report, no later than ten (10) business days following receipt by the sending state.

- a. The response shall provide details of an alternative living arrangement secured by the sending state or provide notice that a decision has been made to return the juvenile.
- b. If an alternative living arrangement is not secured, the juvenile shall be returned no later than ten (10) business days following receipt of the Form IX, Mandatory Relocation Failed Supervision Report, by the sending state. This time period may be extended up to an additional five (5) business days with the approval from both ICJ Offices.

Summary of Proposed Amendment:

In Rule 5-103A: Failed Supervision, the phrase “a juvenile is not detained and” should be deleted. Additionally, the proposal changes “failed supervision” to “mandatory relocation.”

History and Justification:

Removal of “a juvenile is not detained”

The 2022 National UNITY Data Assessment identified concerns about implementation of the ‘failed supervision provisions’ in former Rule 5-103(4). The “new” Rule 5-103A was created to clarify requirements for a receiving state to initiate a ‘mandatory relocation due to failed supervision.’ The requirements for determining supervision has failed were ‘moved’ to the new, more focused Rule 5-103A. Also, a provision was added to specify the receiving state may only determine supervision has failed if the “juvenile is not detained.” This addition was intended to reduce potential conflicts between ICJ Rules, as other ICJ Rules may take precedence in cases where the youth is detained. For example, a receiving state should not initiate a ‘mandatory relocation for failed supervision’ if the youth is detained pursuant to a warrant, as required by ICJ Rule 7-104.

Approximately six months after Rule 5-103A took effect, the Commission received a request for interpretation of Rule 5-103A focused on the meaning of “not detained.” In response, the Executive Committee recommended the Rules Committee determine whether an amendment should be made.

The Rules Committee recommends the phrase “a juvenile is not detained and” should be deleted. It is overly broad and unnecessarily constrains the states’ options for effective responses. In some cases, receiving states temporarily hold youths in detention because “supervision has failed” and there are no other viable options in the community. Most notably, ICJ Rule 5-101\(3\) authorizes receiving states to detain juveniles as a “Sanction” for “non-compliance with terms of supervision.” Such temporarily holds allow time for a “Form IX: Failed Supervision Report” to be issued, alternative living arrangements to be explored, and arrangements for the return to be made, if needed.

Receiving states should be permitted to initiate a ‘mandatory relocation’ in such cases, so long as all other requirements of Rule 5-103A(1) are applicable. Deleting “juvenile is not detained and” will enable receiving states to do so. This amendment will promote the intended purpose of Rule 5-103A by eliminating an unintended consequence of the current rule.

Changing “failed supervision” to “mandatory relocation”

One of the primary reasons for creating the new statute was to clarify that action was required by the sending state. The phrase “mandatory relocation” captures both the need for action and the type of action required. Also, the term “failed supervision” may lead to negative assumptions about the young person’s behavior. However, there the receiving state’s determination could be based on several factors that are not related to the youth’s behavior.

Effect on Other Rules or Advisory Opinions:

Administrative Updates: Other Rules

- Rule 7-104: Warrants – If the proposal to ICJ Rule 5-103A passes, ICJ Rule 7-104: Warrants, paragraph 3, will require an administrative consistency edit, per Rule 2-103\(11\), to replace "failed supervision" with "mandatory relocation."

Administrative Updates: Advisory Opinions

- Advisory Opinion 03-2018: Whether ICJ Rule 7-104 Requires a Home/Demanding State to Return a Juvenile Being Held on a Warrant – Administrative edits for consistency due to the required edit to Rule 7-104(3) as referenced in the preceding section.

UNITY Impact: Yes. The “Failed Supervision Event” will need to be modified in language and functionality to conform with the proposed amendments. The title will be renamed to “Mandatory Relocation Event.” Additionally, the event currently begins with “Is the juvenile detained?” If the UNITY user responds “yes,” the event will not proceed. This screening question will be removed from the process.

Forms Impact: Yes. The Form IX, Failed Supervision Report, will require a title change to “Mandatory Relocation Report,” as well as other text edits for conformity with the proposed amendments.

Fiscal Impact: Given the impact on UNITY and ICJ Forms, there would be a fiscal impact. Cost estimates will be provided in the final rule amendment proposal posting on July 28, 2025.

Effective Date: #/1/2026

RULE 6-102: Voluntary Return of Runaways, Probation/Parole Absconders, Escapees or Accused Delinquents and Accused Status Offenders

Once an out-of-state juvenile is found and detained, the following procedures shall apply:

1. Runaways and accused status offenders who are a danger to themselves or others shall be detained in secure facilities until returned by the home/demanding state. The holding state shall have the discretion to hold runaways and accused status offenders who are not a danger to themselves or others at a location it deems appropriate.
2. Probation/parole absconders, escapees or accused delinquents who have an active warrant shall be detained in secure facilities until returned by the home/demanding state. In the absence of an active warrant, the holding state shall have the discretion to hold the juvenile at a location it deems appropriate.
3. The holding state's ICJ Office shall be advised that the juvenile is being detained. The holding state's ICJ Office shall contact the home/demanding state's ICJ Office advising them of case specifics.
4. The home/demanding state's ICJ Office shall immediately initiate measures to determine the juvenile's residency and jurisdictional facts in that state.
5. At a court hearing (physical or electronic), the court in the holding state shall inform the juvenile of his/her due process rights and may use the ICJ Juvenile Rights Form. The court may elect to appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent the juvenile.
6. If in agreement with the voluntary return, the juvenile shall sign the Form III, Consent for Voluntary Return of Out-of-State Juveniles, in the presence (physical or electronic) of the court. The Form III, Consent for Voluntary Return of Out-of-State Juveniles, shall be signed by the court.
7. When an out-of-state juvenile has reached the age of majority according to the holding state's laws and is brought before an adult court for an ICJ due process hearing, the home/demanding state shall accept an adult waiver instead of the Form III, Consent for Voluntary Return of Out-of-State Juveniles, provided the waiver is signed by the juvenile and the court.
8. When consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the Compact administrator, or designee, of the holding state. The holding state's ICJ Office shall in turn, forward a copy of the consent to the Compact administrator, or designee, of the home/demanding state.

9. ~~The home/demanding state shall be responsive to the holding state's court orders in effecting the return of its juveniles.~~ Each ICJ Office shall have policies/procedures in place involving the return of juveniles that will ensure the safety of the public and juveniles.
10. Juveniles shall be returned by the home/demanding state in a safe manner and within five (5) business days of receiving a completed Form III Consent for Voluntary Return of Out-of-State Juveniles or adult waiver. This time period may be extended up to an additional five (5) business days with approval from both ICJ Offices.

History: Adopted December 3, 2009, effective March 1, 2010; amended September 15, 2010, effective January 1, 2011; clerically amended January 5, 2011, effective February 4, 2011; amended October 17, 2012, effective April 1, 2013; amended August 26, 2015, effective February 1, 2016; amended September 11, 2019, effective March 1, 2020

Justification:

Deleting this sentence from the Rule helps clarify who is responsible for making return arrangements for a juvenile. This Rule is contradictory to other Rules, such as, Rule 7-102: Public Safety, which states: "The home/demanding/sending state's ICJ Office shall determine appropriate measures and arrangements," and Rule 7-106: Transportation, which states: "Holding/receiving states are responsible for transporting juveniles to local airports or other means of public transportation as arranged by the home/demanding/sending state....".

It should be the decision of the Home/Demanding State to determine the method of transportation to return the juvenile.

RULE 8-101: Travel Permits

1. All travel permits shall be submitted prior to the juvenile's travel using the Form VII, Out-of-State Travel Permit and Agreement to Return.
